UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN FRANCISCO DIVISION

In re

201 EL CAMINO REAL, LLC,

Debtor.

Case No. 3:23-bk-30465-DM

Chapter 7

EX PARTE APPLICATION OF CREDITOR
HU-HANTWO LLC PURSUANT TO FEDERAL RULE OF BANKRUPTCY
PROCEDURE 2004 FOR ENTRY OF AN ORDER AUTHORIZING SERVICE OF A
SUBPOENA ON FIRST AMERICAN TITLE
COMPANY

Creditor Hu-Hantwo LLC (“HHT”) hereby submits this Ex Parte Application Pursuant to Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 2004 and Local Bankruptcy Rule 2004-1(a) for Entry of an Order Authorizing the Service of a Subpoena (the “Application”) on First American Title Company (“First American”).

Specifically, HHT requests that the Court enter an order (see Exhibit A (proposed order)) authorizing service of the subpoena in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B on First American as set forth below.

1 I.

2 DISCUSSION

3 HHT is the largest creditor of 201 El Camino Real, LLC (the “Debtor”). HHT sold valuable
4 real property to the Debtor (the “Transaction”) and holds a Promissory Note made by the Debtor in
5 the original principal amount of $7,200,000 as partial consideration for the Transaction. The real
6 property transferred was located at 210 El Camino Real, Menlo Park, CA 94025 and 612 Cambridge
7 Avenue, Menlo Park, CA 94025 (the “Property”).

8 Concurrent with the closing of the Transaction, the Debtor refinanced the Property and 9 received approximately $2,600,000 in cash (the “Refinancing”). A true and correct copy of the 10 escrow closing statement for the Transaction showing the Refinancing and the disbursement to the 11 Debtor of the $2.6 million is attached hereto as Exhibit C. HHT believes that some or all of the 12 funds received in the Refinancing were not used for the benefit of the Debtor and were instead
13 transferred without consideration to or for the benefit of the Debtor’s principal, Nariman Seyed
14 Teymourian, with actual intent to hinder, defraud, and delay creditors of the Debtor. HHT has been 15 unable to determine what happened to the proceeds of the Refinancing.

16 HHT wishes to trace the $2,600,000 disbursed from escrow to investigate who received the 17 funds and for what purpose. This information is needed to understand whether the estate may have
18 viable claims against third parties, which claims appear to include avoidance of fraudulent transfers,
19 conversion, fraud, and similar claims. Should such claims be viable, they may be pursued for the 20 benefit of the estate and its creditors. The information HHT is requesting would not be burdensome
21 to produce as it would not be voluminous and would merely require production of available
22 documents and readily available information.

23 This request is permissible under Rule 2004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy
24 Procedure (“Rule 2004”). Rule 2004 permits any party in interest to take an examination of any 25 entity with respect to “the acts, conduct, or property or to the liabilities and financial condition of the 26 debtor, or to any matter which may affect the administration of the debtor’s estate . . .” and obtain
27 documents. Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2004(b). “It is well established that the scope of a Rule 2004
28 examination is exceptionally broad.” In re N. Plaza, LLC, 395 B.R. 113, 122 n.9 (S.D. Cal. 2008);

1 In re Verity Health Sys. of Cal., 2019 Bankr. LEXIS 2055 *35 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. May 24, 2019)
2 (“Rule 2004 contains a mechanism for compelling the production of documents”); see generally
3 George L. Blum, Bankruptcy Desk Guide § 10:28 (2020 Update) (stating that the Court may order
4 Rule 2004 examinations if the information being sought is “relevant to the continued
5 postconfirmation administration of the case.”).

6 TIME AND PLACE FOR PRODUCTION

7 The requested date of the document production is twenty-one (21) days from entry of an
8 order granting the Application. HHT believes that this provides a reasonable time for production.

9 NO PRIOR REQUEST FOR RELIEF

10 No previous application for the relief sought herein has been made to this Court.

11 CONCLUSION

12 Accordingly, this Application is properly made on an ex parte basis under Local Rule 2004-
13 1(a), and HHT respectfully requests this Court enter an order in substantially the form attached
14 hereto as Exhibit A, granting the relief requested herein, and such other and further relief as may be 15 just.

16
17 Respectfully submitted,

18 MICHAEL B. LUBIC

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45(c), (d), (e), and (g) (Effective 12/1/13)
(made applicable in bankruptcy cases by Rule 9016, Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure)

(c) Place of compliance.

(1) For a Trial, Hearing, or Deposition. A subpoena may command a person to attend a trial, hearing, or deposition only as follows:

- (A) within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; or
- (B) within the state where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, if the person
  - (i) is a party or a party's officer; or
  - (ii) is commanded to attend a trial and would not incur substantial expense.

(2) For Other Discovery. A subpoena may command:

- (A) production of documents, or electronically stored information, or things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; and
- (B) inspection of premises, at the premises to be inspected.

(d) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena; Enforcement.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court for the district where compliance is required must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction — which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees — on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises — or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

- (i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the court for the district where compliance is required for an order compelling production or inspection.
- (ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court for the district where compliance is required must quash or modify a subpoena that:

- (i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;
- (ii) requires a person to comply beyond the geographical limits specified in Rule 45(c);
- (iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or
- (iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

- (i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

- (i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and
- (ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

- (i) expressly make the claim; and
- (ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(g) Contempt. The court for the district where compliance is required — and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court — may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.
